Question Question 4(b) [4 marks]

marks

Answer the following questions in brief. (20 to 40 Words) (Any Two)

1. Comment on the gradual change in the behavior of Birds and Animals towards the Author in the story "Leopard".

Answer: Initially, birds and animals were wary of the author, fleeing at his approach. Gradually, as he became a regular visitor who posed no threat, they grew accustomed to his presence. Eventually, they accepted him as part of their environment, carrying on their natural activities even when he was nearby.

2. Where did Jimmy and Bob have their last dinner? What did they promise to each other then?

Answer: Jimmy and Bob had their last dinner at “Big Joe” Brady’s restaurant. They promised to meet again at the same spot exactly twenty years later, regardless of their circumstances or distances traveled, demonstrating their commitment to their friendship.

3. Why was Bob under arrest? Why didn’t Jimmy himself arrest Bob?

Answer: Bob was under arrest because he was a wanted criminal in Chicago. Jimmy didn’t arrest Bob himself because of their friendship; instead, he sent another officer to make the arrest while leaving a note explaining the situation, showing his internal conflict between duty and friendship.

Question Question 4(c) [7 marks]

marks

Write a Brief Note in about 120 words on the following. (Any Two)

1. Author’s Two Encounters with the Leopard

Answer: In Ruskin Bond’s “Leopard,” the author has two significant encounters with the magnificent wild cat.

Table 4. The Two Leopard Encounters

| Encounter | Description | Outcome |
|----------------|---|--------------------------------|
| First Meeting | Author spots leopard drinking from stream | Mutual watchfulness, respect |
| Second Meeting | Leopard appears unexpectedly on path | Gentle retreat, acknowledgment |

- First Encounter: The author observes the leopard drinking from the stream. The animal senses his presence but continues drinking, showing a level of comfort.
- Second Encounter: The leopard appears on the path ahead of the author. They maintain eye contact before the leopard calmly retreats into the forest.

These encounters highlight the delicate relationship between humans and wildlife, with mutual respect allowing for peaceful coexistence.

Mnemonic

Watch, Wait, Withdraw

2. Central Idea of the Poem “Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening”

Answer: Robert Frost’s poem conveys the tension between appreciating natural beauty and fulfilling life’s obligations.

Table 5. Central Ideas in the Poem

| Theme | Evidence |
|-------------------------|---|
| Natural Beauty | “Woods fill up with snow” |
| Momentary Pause | Stopping between woods and frozen lake |
| Duty vs. Desire | Horse’s impatience vs. speaker’s wish to stay |
| Life’s Responsibilities | “Miles to go before I sleep” |

- Appreciation of Beauty: The speaker pauses to admire the serene, snow-filled woods.
- Life’s Duties: Despite the attraction of natural beauty, life’s responsibilities call.
- Deeper Meaning: The repeated line “miles to go before I sleep” suggests both literal journey and life’s remaining responsibilities.

Mnemonic

Pause, Ponder, Proceed

3. Freedom envisioned by Tagore in “Where the Mind is without Fear”

Answer: In his poem, Tagore envisions an ideal free India characterized by intellectual and spiritual freedom.

Table 6. Tagore’s Vision of Freedom

| Aspect | Vision |
|--------------|--|
| Intellectual | Knowledge without borders, free from fear |
| Social | No divisions based on caste, religion, or region |
| Cultural | Truth-seeking without prejudice |
| National | Dignity, rational thinking, and progress |

- Fearless Mind: Citizens think and express freely without intimidation.
- Knowledge without Barriers: Learning transcends narrow domestic walls.
- Truth-Seeking: Words come from depth of truth, not superficial sources.
- Rational Thinking: Reason guides actions, not superstition or blind customs.

Mnemonic

Freedom Through Knowledge, Truth, and Reason

1. “Where the Mind is without Fear” is written by the Poet _____.
Answer: (c) Rabindranath Tagore
2. What made Bob realize that the Cop wasn’t Jimmy?
Answer: (d) His jaw
3. “Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening” is written by the Poet _____.
Answer: (d) Robert Frost
4. Apart from the author, _____ was the regular visitor of the stream.
Answer: (b) Forktail

Question Alternative Question 4(b) [4 marks]

marks

Answer the following questions in brief. (20 to 40 Words) (Any Two)

1. Comment on the Author’s approach to the Birds and Animals in “Leopard”.
Answer: The author approached wildlife with patience and respect, never intruding or disturbing their natural behaviors. He maintained appropriate distance, moved slowly, and avoided direct eye contact with threatening gestures. This considerate approach earned him eventual acceptance, allowing him to observe their natural behaviors.
2. How does the little horse of the poet react to being stopped by the woods? Why?
Answer: The horse shakes its harness bells questioningly, thinking it unusual to stop without a farmhouse nearby. It’s impatient because it’s accustomed to practical journeys with definite destinations, not pausing to appreciate natural beauty, and senses they have responsibilities waiting ahead.
3. Explicate Tagore’s Vision of India when he says “Where the world has not been broken up into fragments by narrow domestic walls.”

Answer: Tagore envisions an India free from divisions based on caste, religion, region, or language. He dreams of a unified nation where people don't separate themselves with prejudice or discrimination. These "narrow domestic walls" represent artificial social barriers that prevent national unity and human connection.

Question Alternative Question 4(c) [7 marks]

marks

Write a Short Note in about 120 words on the following. (Any Two)

1. Lessons learnt from the story "After Twenty Years"

Answer: O. Henry's "After Twenty Years" offers profound life lessons through its ironic twist.

Table 7. Key Lessons from "After Twenty Years"

| Lesson | Explanation |
|--------------------------|--|
| Life Changes People | Bob and Jimmy's drastically different paths |
| Duty vs. Friendship | Jimmy's moral conflict as policeman and friend |
| Irony of Fate | Friends meeting as criminal and cop |
| Honor in Different Forms | Both men keep their promises differently |

- Character Evolution: People change significantly over time, sometimes in unexpected directions.
- Moral Dilemma: Professional duty may conflict with personal relationships.
- Honor and Integrity: Jimmy fulfills both his promise (by sending a note) and his duty (by arranging the arrest).
- Consequences of Choices: Our decisions shape our destiny, leading us to unforeseen circumstances.

Mnemonic

- Intellectual Freedom: Minds functioning without fear or oppression.
- Social Harmony: No artificial divisions based on caste, religion, or region.
- Progressive Thinking: Clear, logical reasoning guiding national progress.
- Moral Character: Words emerging from truthfulness, actions from dignity.

Mnemonic

Free Minds, United People, Progressive Nation

3. The Author's strong efforts to find out the Forktail's nest in "Leopard"

Answer: In "Leopard," the author's search for the forktail's nest demonstrates his passion for wildlife observation.

Table 9. The Forktail Nest Search

| Aspect | Details |
|----------------------|--|
| Bird Characteristics | Small, black and white water bird frequenting stream |
| Search Methodology | Patient observation, tracking movements |
| Challenges | Forktail's secretive nature, difficult terrain |
| Significance | Represents author's deeper connection with wildlife |

- Persistent Observation: The author regularly visited the stream to study the forktail's habits.
- Methodical Approach: He followed the bird's flight patterns, noting where it disappeared.
- Challenges Faced: Dense vegetation and slippery rocks complicated the search.
- Symbolic Meaning: The quest represents mankind's desire to understand nature's secrets.

Mnemonic

Watch, Follow, Discover

 12 Subject: Complaint Regarding Damaged Furniture Delivery - Order No. [Order Number]
 13
 14 Dear Sir/Madam,
 15
 16 We regret to inform you that we have received damaged furniture items in our recent order (Order No.
 → [Order Number]) delivered on [Delivery Date].
 17
 18 Upon inspection, we found the following items damaged:
 19
 20 1. Executive Desk (Model: GF-ED1001, Serial No. [Number]) - Scratches on the surface and a broken drawer
 21 2. Staff Chairs (Model: GF-SC4004) - 3 units with damaged armrests
 22 3. File Cabinet (Model: GF-FC7007) - Dent on the right side panel
 23
 24 This is particularly disappointing as we needed these items urgently for our newly established office. The → damage has caused inconvenience and delayed our office setup.
 25
 26 We request you to:
 27 - Replace the damaged items at the earliest possible date, or
 28 - Offer appropriate compensation/discount for the damaged goods
 29
 30 We have preserved the original packaging and have photographic evidence of the damage, which can be → provided if required.
 31
 32 We have been a loyal customer of GLOBAL FURNITURE and expect a prompt resolution to this matter.
 33
 34 Yours sincerely,
